

2011–2012 Verification Worksheet

Dependent

In this verification process, we will be comparing information from your financial aid application with signed copies of your and your spouse's (for students who are married), or your parent(s)' (for dependent students) 2010 federal income tax returns, schedules, and W-2 forms or other financial documents. By law, we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding federal aid. We must review the requested information under the federal financial aid program rules (CFR Title 34, Part 668). If there are differences between your application information and the verification documents, we will make the corrections and send the required changes electronically to the federal student aid processor, to have your information reprocessed.

What you should do:

1. Collect signed copies of your and your parent(s) 2010 federal income tax returns, schedules, and W-2 forms. If you need to request a copy of your tax return, call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040.
2. Talk to your financial aid administrator if you have questions about completing this worksheet.
3. Complete and sign the worksheet.
4. Submit the completed worksheet, tax forms, and any other documents your school requests to your financial aid administrator.
5. Your financial aid administrator will compare information on this worksheet and any supporting documents with the information you submitted on your application. You may need to make corrections electronically or by using your SAR. Your school must review the requested information, under the financial aid program rules (34 CFR, Part 668).
